

AUTHORIZATION AND RELEASE FOR T-SHIRT DESIGN ARTWORK FOR SUMMER INTERNS

Each year, the JPL Education Office creates a T-shirt for the summer's interns. The shirt has also been sold in the JPL Store at the end of the summer. This year, each intern will have the opportunity to submit a T-shirt design to the Education Office, all interns will vote their favorite, and the design receiving the most votes will be the T-shirt for the following year's interns, and sold as described above.

Those submitting designs agree that:

I grant to the California Institute of Technology (Caltech) and its Jet Propulsion Laboratory (JPL) the right to make, use, and display the T-shirt design submitted by me to the JPL Education Office on intern T-shirts that may be sold at the JPL Store.

I warrant that the design submitted by me for Caltech/JPL to reproduce, as described, will be my original design and will not incorporate any pre-existing copyrighted elements that I do not have approval to reproduce.

I am fully aware and agree that my design may be posted on publicly available internet sites, including Caltech/JPL sites and publicly viewable social media sites. I waive any right that I may have to review or approve of such uses, or the finished T-shirt products.

I have read and fully understand the contents of this agreement before signing below.
